

CAMDEN POLITICAL NOTES

—The Democrats will hold their city convention to-night.

—Resolutions indorsing the Republican nominations have been adopted by the Sixth Ward Republican Club.

—The Committee of One Hundred had twenty-five men at work yesterday serving circulars to citizens of Camden appealing for funds to carry on the campaign.

—Ex-Assemblyman Joseph M. Engard and Councilman Charles H. Ellis, Jr., were among the speakers at the opening of the new quarters of the Hebrew Republican Club last night at Rogers' Hall, Fifth and Chestnut streets.

—Councilman-at-Large W. B. E. Miller states that he is thankful for the letters congratulating him upon his nomination, but he desires to inform his friends that they are mistaken, as it is R. R. Miller, who received the Republican nomination as his successor.

—War Veterans' Association, No. 1, last night adopted resolutions indorsing the Republican candidates and proposing Under Sheriff H. L. Hartstorn as a candidate for Sheriff next fall. George E. Martin presided. Addresses were made by City Treasurer Felton, Mayor Westcott, Councilmen Potter and Hillman, Recorder Braker and Candidates R. R. Miller, E. E. Reed, Jr., Arthur Sedell and A. F. Shultz. A collation was served.
