OVER IN CAMDEN

* Six dozen children's shoes were stolen Tuesday night from Alfred Sample's shoe store, near City Line Station.

* The Thaddeus Kosciuszko Independence Club has moved into new quarters at 922 Mechanic street.

* Joseph Fearon, Sr., warden of St. Paul's P. E. Church, died at his home, 525 Cooper street, yesterday, aged 77 years.

* A "smoker" was given by the United Hebrew Republican Club lest evening at their headquarters, Fifth and Chestnut streets.

* George Ball is locked up at the City Hall for a hearing to-day on suspicion of having stolen a bag of lead pipe found in his possesison.

*Judge Armstrong heard additional testimony in the Camden Orphans' Court yesterday in the contested will case of Rebecca E. Parker, deceased.

* City Treasurer Felton yesterday paid $5000 to County Collector lvins on the taxes due the county, leaving a balance of $26,431.10 which the city still owes.

• John Bamford admitted to Mayor Westcott yesterday that he had stolen an $$ pair of spectacles from Mrs. Annie Evans. He was committed in default of ball.

 At the annual meeting of the Wildey Hall Association stockholders H. B. Wilson was elected president, James B. Wilson, secretary and treasurer and George F. Fjelds, superintendent,