

THE HAINES LINE

The Haines Genealogy is well documented and readily available in most libraries for all to see. We will note here only the line that directly leads to the Hinelines, starting with Richard Haines and Margaret of Aynhoe, England.

1. RICHARD HAINES (1)was the progenitor of the Haines family in Burlington County, although he did not survive the voyage to America from England in 1682. He and his wife Margaret were married sometime prior to 1665 and were affiliated with St. Michael's Church, Aynhoe, Northamptonshire, where parish records show the baptism of their son, John on 6 Aug 1665. Richard and Margaret became members of the Society of Friends sometime between 1672 and 1676. Their decision to make passage for America was likely influenced by their religious association. They had six children, five born in England and the youngest born during the voyage to America:
