ENGINES IN COLLISION. Three Men Hart Gwing to a Switch Carelessly Left Open. Frederick II. Kuebler, brakeman, aged 21, of No. 1103 Baring street, Camien: Markey Stephens, aged 23, of No. 1711 Solfridge street, and Daule! Collins, brakeman, aged

21, of No. 1622 Wharton street, were tilured about 4 a. M. yesterday by the collision of two Pennsylvania Railroad engines, one drawing a train and the other a tender only, which came together in consequence of a mispiaced switch. The side-tracked cars had been switched off into a yard belonging and the second of the consequence of th had begun to pull out of the yard when engies No. 198, running with only a tender, came lacking southward. It was too dark to see the switch, and engine 199 was running too fast to stop, and a crash followed. The bunger was of oak as thick as a railroad tie, and it sampped like a match. The crave of 1998 took the injured men to Washread to the control of the control of the following the control of the control of the Kadher and Colema to the home yirania.