

CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

 Young women of the Memorial M. P. Church have formed an organization which is doing splendid work this frigid weather looking after unfortunate little ones living in the vicinity of the church.

 During the absence of Mrs. Harry Huntley, of 318 North Eighth street, from her home thieves yesterday ransacked the place, stealing about $125 worth of jewelry and clothing.

 Members of the Board of Trade will hold their annual meeting tonight at which the election of officers will take place.

 The Vixen Tool Company was incorporated yesterday with a capital of $2000, the incorporators being F. R. Hansell, G. H. B. Martin and John MacPeak.

 Thomas Armitage, 32 years old, of 1171 Linden street, and Kelly Parker, 36 years old, of 526 South Third street, were taken to the Cooper Hospital yesterday suffering from burns of the eyes, hands and face. They are employed at the power house at the Pennsylvania Railroad terminal, at the foot of Federal street, as electricians. Their injuries were received when a wire became short-circuited.

 Icy pavements resulted in two persons going to the Cooper Hospital yesterday. Peter Roane, 60 years old, of 203 Byron street, fell at Third and Linden streets, fracturing several ribs. William Morgan, 15 years old, of 123 Market street, fell near his home and broke an arm.