MURDERED WOMAN'S HUSBAND IS DEFIANT PRISONER IN CAMDEN Mrs. Louise Giles Shot Dead in Son's Home in Woodlynne

D. Charles Giles Refuses to Explain Slight Wounds He Bears

Mrs. Louise Giles, 53 years of age, was shot and killed yesterday at a son's home in Woodlynne, a Camden suburb, and her husband who is under arrest on suspicion of being the murderer, is a defiant prisoner in the Cam-den City Hall.

den City Hall. The husband, D. Charles Giles, 57 years of age, while admitting that the revolver with which the shooting was done, belongs to him, has refused to answer questions of Captain of Detec-tives Schreiler and Assistant Prose-cutor Straw. He asserts he will say nothing until given opportunity to com-olly with second sult with counsel.

Mrs. Giles was shot twice in the neck. She was dead when brought to Cooper Hospital. Her husband has slight

She was dead when hrought to Cooper-Hospital Her hankand has slight wounds or scratches on his neck and chest, which he refuses to explain. To-lice believe they were self-indiced. Son Locked Up Father Mirs, Giles, her hunband and son Lay-ton, 19 years old, were visiting her son, Charles Giles, at 200 Laurel are-net. Woodlyma, Charles, who is sen-ted with the self of the self of the yards, was not at home when the shoot-we occurred.

bite father resisted viewons of where the attempted to take the revolver from him. Journe man booked his father in Tever room while he telephoned to Canden for the police. A patrol wag-on and crew carried Mrs. Giles and ler husband to Cooper Hospital, where so the source of the source of the source of the source of the source attempted to question Giles. The prisoner, after stating be had had words with his wife horeause she had complained that soupport, hereine suller and suid: "I won't Admit Anything" To and the different source attempted to question Giles. The prisoner, after stating be had had words with his wife horeause she had complained that soupport, hereine suller and suid: "I won't admit anything. I will maxwer no more questions until 1 have had opportunity to consult a lawyer. Jum now." The maintained the same attitude lat-er when taken to the office of the assistant prosecutor. Around, Candea, near Washington street. He has a summer home at Di-ing now." I here and has spent moch time visi-ing holdren. He had been in Wood-Jone and is regarded as well to do. Do her working, her type with his wife, has spent moch time visi-ing hord. "So Glewood avenue, Bloomfield, N. 1. and Wood Avenue, Bloomfield N. 1. and More Maxweb Lauring, of a con, Harold L. Giles, ef 35 Ellis attreet, Bloomfield, N.J.

Barry Frances ومندرية المتع È.