NEGRESS BURNED TO DEATH Invalid Sister Rescued After Giving Alarm

Mrs Mary Ann Waters, a negress, 59 years old, of 137 Chestnuk street, Camden, was burned to death yesterday, when the sktchen of her home became iganted, supposedly from an overheated stove. The woman was trapped in the room and her charred body was found alongued the collar door atter the firemen had extinguished the blaze. Mrs. Jong and the charred body was rescued by Fireman Harry Channes and ferry Douchs, a neighbor.

Mis. Waters had jeft her safer to prepare breaklast and it was abortly after abe was heard to scream and smoke that came up the starway showed Mrs. Mertrantor, brokappenet, by crawled of the same to the starway showed for a litens and to the floor unconcoust, where she was found. The fire caused a loss of several hundred dollars. Coroner Basher yound the body of the fire vowith the jatic excitations an accordance Retired Fireman Hurt in Fall Former Assistant Fire Chief Samuel Buzine, now on the retired list, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon, when he fell from the roof of his home at 765 Spruce street, Camden. He received severe lacerations and contusions of the head and face, broke two mbs and was badly shaken up. Despite his advanced years, he is sprightly and he determined to clean off the snow from his root. It was while thus employed that he shpped and fell. Known to his termer subordinates as "Daddy," the septigenarian is a familiar figure throughout Camden.