

Aged Man, Out of Work, Hangs Self

Despondent over his inability to secure a position he had been after, Ferdinand Frenzel, aged 60, of 1465 Kenwood avenue, Camden, hung himself to the bed post in his room yesterday. His body was found by his wife, Mrs. Amelia Frenzel. The man had tried to get work during the past week and the fact that he was unsuccessful preyed on his mind. According to Coroner Schroeder, who gave a certificate of death from suicide, a son of the deceased committed suicide in 1908.
