CAMDEN NEWS NOTES

•• Eighth ward Republicans have organized a club in the interests of Dr. Grant E. Kirk for Councils and William Ellis for freeholder. Lewis Smenzer is president and there are 250 names on the membership list.

•• "Thrown to the ground when his dog vigorously tugged on the chain with which he was leading the animal, Assistant Tax Receiver Charles Elfreth sustained a sprained ankle.

•• Pleading guilty to a charge of breaking and entering the store of Aaron Uhsel, 915 S. Third street, and stealing tobacco, cigars and cigarettes, Carl Green, a negro youth, told Recorder Stackhouse that it was his intention to start in business for himself. He was committed without bail.

•• On the evening of August 12 Mayor Ellis will address the Young Men's Club of the First of the Eighth w'd on "The responsibilities of Young Men." The club is supporting Councilmen Besser and Freeholder Leeson for renomination.

•• Rev. Kittredge Wheeler will tomorrow preach preach his farewell sermon as pastor of the North Baptist Church. Dr. Wheeler leaves next week for Los Angeles, Cal., where he has accepted a call to a prominent church.

•• Clawed by a bear as he passed the animal's cage in an express car, Joseph Allen, a conductor on the Atlantic City express line running out of Broad street, Philadelphia, is confined to his home, 411 Carteret street, Camden, with lacerations of the face and nose.

•• "Terribly burned from the neck down, seven-year-old Robert Bell, of 652 Woodland avenue, is in Cooper Hospital, Camden, in a critical condition. His clothing caught fire while he was playing with matches.

•• Convicted of stabbing William A. Adams, an aged man, Zach——h Harris, a negro, was yesterday sentenced to one year in State prison by Judge Berry at a special session of Camden Criminal Court.

•• Announcements were received in Camden today of the marriage at Columbus, O., on Wednesday of Miss Anna Elizabeth Tallman, of that city, and Mr. Harry Carter Jones, a widely known young man of South Camden.