ATTACKED OFFICER WHO MADE ARREST

While passing Orchard and Speamore streets, Camden, yesterday, Policeman Camillus Appley, who is 6 feet 4 inches tall and weighs over 300 pounds, was attacked by Boleslaus Green, a Polish resident.

Appley was in citizen's dress, but he placed Green under arrest and started for the patrol box. Nearing it, he was attacked by three other men and Green, escaping, ran into his house at 1128 Sycamore street.

Appley followed and again arrested Green, only to be attacked by friends of Green. During the fight, which lasted twenty minutes, Appley was hicked in the face, nearly destroying this sight of has left ye, bolieman Donovan, another suchooter, came to his rescue and between them they sent Green, John M. Gells and Willam Danka to the city jail. Appley went to Cooper Hospital and after he had his juinter, dressed wont back and destablished being one of his weather.