NONE OF STOLEN MONEY FOUND ON SUSPECT

Oscar La vhead was brought back from Buffalo to Canden resterday by County Detective Cherry to answer a charge of stealing $120 from Mrs. Frank Grundy, of 20 Market street. When he returned Lawhead did not have a cent.

He was employed by the voman's busband as a plasterer and asked Grundy for the loan of $3. Grundy told Lawhead to go upstars and he would find the money beneath the carpet. To head the carpet as an unprovide bank. Mrs. Grundy's hoard, which was $120, the plasterer is alleged to have purloared.

Going to Harrisburg he fell m with some "good fellows," Shortly after Lawhead found himself speeding away on a train. He had been drugged and robbed of SSO. After that he went to Buffalo, where the balance of his money disappeared. Here he was taken into custody and held pending requisition papers.