A 21 IAN N APP EAL VAIN

But F Cour t Ş doi of and Fi O SI ars

1

Two lives were saved by the Court of Pardons yesterday afternoon and clemency was shown to ten murderers. The court met with Governor Woodrow Wilson presiding for the last time be-fore his inauguration as President of the United States. The session was so for yesterday by the Governor so that these who were fortunate enough to be shown clemency could spend Christmas with their families. The Secretary of State's office worked over-time issuing the papers, and the pris-oners were granted immediate pris-oners were granted immediate pris-tence to be clearcourted December 23, had their lives spared. These boys, hold not whom are under 21 years of the state and the prise spare den salonekeeper Coursey as given 30 years in the State Prison in lieu of bis death sentence, and Duffield was given 15 years. The court refused to grant clemency to David H. Brand and John Sykes saved by rday afternoon am-wn to ten murderers. ornor Woodrow 'mo bethe . أنان lives irs shc e th Cam-given su of was 0 years in the service and Duffield was diven 15 years. The court refused to grant clemency o David H. Brand and John Sylcs. Srand's brother was at the State House luring the entire day and interceded with the members of the court for his prother's release. The Brand case has een annually before the Court of Par-tone since he was sentenced January tho is serving a 10 years' sentence or the embezzlement of trust funds, who her serving a 10 years' sentence of the embezzlement of trust funds, Another notable Mercer County case considered was that of Bartholomew Ganwicz, who is serving a 10 to trust of murder. His application was re-lated. unds. nty case tholomew llfe term was re-bv

Another case considered by the fosed. Another case considered by the court was that of Charles Ford of Camden, who murdered his paramour, Effle Wagner. During the absence of Governor Wilson from the state, Act-ing Governor Frince granted Ford a reprieve to January 6, so that his case might come before the Pardons Board. His nppeal was dismissed and he will mow be destructured. The court granted a parole to Wil-the court granted a parole to Wil-terpreted a physician's prescription, and instead of making nine pills with one and one-half grains of morphine in each, he put nine grains in each died.

in each, he put nine grains in each phil, with the result that the patient lied. Leander J. Smith of Camden, under accord denth for anden, under accord destinations of the second imprisonment in 1903. He was pa-roled. Other murdersr shown clem-ency by parole were Paul Bernack. Essex County, manslaughter, by verrs; Philemon B. Crelin, murder, Essex County, O years; Domenica Scala, Essex County, manslaughter, three county, O years; Domenica Scala, Essex County, manslaughter, three county, Millam Schneider, Essex County, Manslaughter, five years; County, Manslaughter, five years; Casimer Teresnick, Hudson County, murder, 20 years; Bartholomew Sor-rick Carroll, a Hudson County, murder, 20 years; Pat-rick Carroll, a Hudson County, was reited by the second of the lay members of the Court of Errors and Appeals, it was pointed out that there are 1,538 prisoners in the institution. The committee said that the prison was deplorably crowded, and in many mistunces there were two prisoners in a cell. Out of the 20s eases from the institution, S8 were refused outright. The Contral and South Jersey paroles printed were: Atlantic County-Rplert Brooks breaking and, anterline and enter an pri , in m , o prisoners , osses from , were refused outrij , and South Jersey par , atlantie County-, Rpbert Broc reaking and entering and assault i attery, four years; Antonio Tedei troclous assault and battery with ent to kill, 12 years; O'Dulla L. V tuez, atroclous assault and batt 'the intent to kill, 12 years. Burlington' County-Adam Por ssault with intent, six years. Canden-Thomas .Burnett, indee ublication, two years and six mont harles Horner, atroclous assault a titery, two years; Thomas Ple ssault and battery, three years; V am Rolla, rape, three years; Cumberland-Albert Stevenson, ' lary and receiving stolen even years and $2,000 f* itted. Hunterdon Co-bur.

Moun Willian on, on n yea Some itter ar;

to ro ob of source one year; David Will: in years: Somerset.—John Lahey, s Sottery with intent to rol jall, 10 years; James Reg and battery with intent to ing jall, 10 years. The following inmates of cer County Workhouse we Nellie E. Cope, petty la year; John Grego, desertion Sammel A. Werz, robhery, Richard Williams, simple a year. were lar or 18 me mo ault ths

John A. Rech of Atlantic County, who was sentenced to 20 years for second degree murder and who was paroled July 20, 1904, was granted a full pardon.