

Man and Wife Under Arrest

On a dispatch from Chief of Police George Senft, of Egg Harbor City, Detective Harry Curtis, of the Pennsylvania Railroad force, arrested Edward and Mary Sanderman, man and wife, in the Camden terminal yesterday as they were about to board a train for Salem. Senft appeared before Recorder Stackhouse with a warrant charging them with the larceny of a watch and clothing belonging to a farmer named Jacob Loux, living near Egg Harbor. The prisoners were turned over to Senft and he took them back to Egg Harbor for a hearing.
