

OVER IN CAMDEN

The Eleventh Ward Republican Club has endorsed the candidacy of Herbert W. Johnson for State Senator, and John Wesley Sell for Sheriff.

Horace Barber, of Haddonfield, and William Billson, of Collingswood, were arrested last evening by Bicycle Policeman Bosch, for scorching.

The will of late Assistant Prosecutor William H. Carson was admitted to probate yesterday. It named his widow as executrix and devised to her his entire estate.

Isaac Madara, of 1084 South Second street, while at work unloading a canal boat, at Walnut street wharf, had one of his feet crushed by a stone falling on it.

The fourth anniversary of the death of Rev. F. Fitzsimmons, was observed yesterday, with the celebration of high requiem mass at the Church of the Immaculate Conception.

Detective Harry Curtis, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, has been doing good work ridding South Jersey of tramps who had been stealing freight from West Jersey and Seashore Railroad trains.

Mrs. John Eckert was sentenced to 90 days' imprisonment by Recorder Nowrey yesterday on a charge of disorderly conduct. Her husband accused her of leaving home to live with a colored man.

First Lieutenant Lorenzo Dyer, of the Forty-seventh Regiment, U. S. Volunteers, has opened a recruiting office at 428 Market street. He was formerly captain of Company L, Fourth Regiment, New Jersey Volunteers.

City Counsel Bleakly was notified yesterday that the appeal of the United States Sugar Refinery for a reduction of the tax assessment on its plant at the foot of Penn street from $600,000 to $400,000 would be heard at Trenton on September 8.

Thomas Needham, aged 18 years, of 259 North Ninth street, Camden, fell from a bicycle on the Mt. Ephraim bicycle path yesterday afternoon, and struck his head against a curbstone. He was taken to Cooper Hospital and is seriously injured.

Mrs. Charles Gilbert had her husband arrested yesterday on a charge of drunkenness. While accompanying him in a patrol wagon to the City Hall to make a formal complaint she struck him in the mouth. Recorder Nowrey imposed a fine of $3.75 on Mrs. Gilbert and discharged her husband.

The work of opening the slot machines secured in last Sunday's raid at Gloucester City, was begun yesterday by Sheriff Baird. The money taken from each machine will be placed in separate canvas bags and deposited in the First National Bank until after the cases are cleared up. Over $20 was found in the first machine opened.