Four Graves in Mount Holly Cemeteries to Be Decorated Today by Sons of Revolution

from Interers of years South sident She is Jathan , and ghters, Bash Tren-Phila-

Philarlis, of idchil-

S; DAY

oril 18. widow today n-l w, nswick fter a pars of til her mem-Square ears. e con-M. at ren W. Way, pastor charge. Baptist W. T.

by two ert D., daugh-Theo-Hights-Albert Taylor, rother, ck, and great-

18. rpenter Standne and Four graves of Revolutionary heroes will be decorated today in Mounty Holly cemeteries by officials of the Sons of the Revolution, Society of New Jersey.

An appropriate marker will be

Funeral Services For E. C. Hill

Former Civic Leader Buried in Riverview Cemetery Yesterday

Final rities for Edmund C. Hill, for many years a civic leader in Trenton, were held yesterday afternoon at the Church Home of lvins & Taylor, 77 Prospect Street. The Rev. Edward A. Morris, of the First Presbyleting Church, and the Grave Baptist Church, officiated. Interment was in Riverview Cometery.

Honorary bearers were: William J. Burkert, Adam Exton, Joseph B. Hottel, Howard L. Hughes, Ralph Hulse, S. E. Kaufman, A. K. Leuckel, Kenneth W. Moore, John H. Sines and C. L. Travet. Active bearers were: George

Active bearers were: George Hill, Craig Narry, Irving Schenck and George Temple.

Mr. Hill, who was a prominent figure in the city's growth, died Thursday.

DELEGATES' BALLOT SLOGAN BAN UPHELD

JERSEY CITY, April 18 (2),---Chief Justice Thomas J. Brogan of the State Supreme Court today upheld the ruling of Attorney General Wilentz that candidates for delegates to national political conventions cannot use slogans opposite their names on the ballots placed on each grave and then brief prayers will be intoned by the Rev. Thomas L. Rideout, of Mount Holly.

Dr. Kirk B. Barb, of Camden, president of Francis Hopkinson Chapter, Sons of the Revolution, will preside over the ceremonies. i Donald B. Rice is chairman of the graves committee and, together I with Newton A. K. Bugbee, will r represent the Trenton chapter.

The first ceremony will be held at 2:30 P. M. in St. Andrew's Cemetery, where the grave of General John Lacey, commander of Continental troops at the Battle of Crooked Billet, will be decorated. The grave of Major Richard Cox, which is in the same buryingground, will likewise be decorated.

Then the officials will go to Mount Holly Cemetery, where honor will be paid to John Peter Martin and William Innes.

Martin, who was a native of South Carolina and long a resident of Mount Holly, was a volunteer sailor in the Revolutionary Navy and finally served as an officer i under General Sumter.

On his grave is the following Llo epitaph:

"He endured the prison ship, sickness in camp and numerous perils in battle; especially in the assault on Savannah. He closed a long and consistent Christian life, May 26, 1832, in the 73d year."

On the grave of Innes appears this inscription:

"Here lies the body of William Innes, a native of Scotland, for many years a resident of Philadelphia. He was a patrigt in the War of Independence and was conspicuous throughout an active life for his marked benevolence and piety. Died June 25, 1824, at Mount Holly in his 90th year."

Records disclosed by officials of the Sons of the Revolution indicate [] that Innes was the father-in-law [] of Martin.

DEATH DLOT PARC

A wea sun

50]

Thi I

Fi incu with Repu nation

19 filin Ti

for W. Will tor choi orga man Hon wou T gres are:

T of M Mat R

Rep Lon Clea Ivon Sch Coa Alb

"Re F R Tre Goo

tion In Mou F of I D Par R Plai

Plai McI ples tice