A POLICEMAN'S BATTLE.

Beating Administered a Camden Blue Coat. Burgiars at Work.

Policeman William Harrey had a hard ight activ peternay morning when he attempted to arrest Thomas, alias "Curley," Barnes for drunkenness. The prisoner turned upon him and was joined by his brother, John, and another man. Unitedly they forcely attacked the policeman, knocking him down and severely beating bim.

: Harvey, despite the odds against him, managed to take Barnes to a patrol box, thence to the City Hall. Mayor Pratt held bim in $300 bail.

The office of Hatch & Bro., brick manufacturers, on Delaware avenue, was entered by burglars early yesterday morning. They broke in a rear shutter and got away with about $50 worth of goods.

Meetings to name delegates to the Congressional and county conventions will be beld in all the wards of Camden to-night.