WOODWARD'S LAST SUNDAY ON EARTH

Listens to Religious Services in Jail and Threatens to "Call

Down" Ministers

Paul Woodward, who has but two days more before be will be hanged for the murder of John Coffm and W. Price Jenmunge, seent has last Sunday in his cell at the county juli, in Camden reading and services held in another part of the juli with apparent interest, but remarked: "If those preacher-says anythma about me I'I call them doym." Woodward ate an enormous dinner ordered from a nearby retaurant, consetting di stewed chicker, "The authorities seem to be of the omit

The authorities seem to be of the opin ion that Woodward will create a scene when he goes to the gallows next Wedneday. He is in much better physical condition than the day he was first incarnerated ion than the day he was first incarnerated ion of the scene is the scene of the scene of the origin he will go to his cleath without being "carried on a chair," as he recently rematried.
